This greatly helped the delegates, especially the librarians present in the seminar, in understanding the needs and requirements of the users of public libraries so that they can plan their services accordingly.

In his presidential remarks Mr. S. S. Choragi, the Principal of Shri Sangameshwar Arts and Commerce College, praised the public library services in rural areas and how they are fractioning as people's universities by providing access to all kinds of knowledge. He also stressed that the governments and local bodies should take appropriate steps to further strengthen these only democratic institutions in the community.

The Inaugural session concluded with vote of thanks.

Technical Session-I (11:30 AM to 01:00 PM):

During the Technical Session-I, about 10 delegates presented their papers on various topics related to Public Libraries. Following table provides more details of the papers presented.

Introduction

In the present knowledge the library is considered as an important centre and is the heart of the any institute. The academic libraries need to provide various services & facilities to the users to motivate them to use the library. These facilities and services have a greater impact on the user satisfaction. The libraries are acquiring different types of resources, and providing services, to fulfill the needs of their clients. To strengthen the collection and services of the library the users feedback helps much. By considering this, the libraries are frequently conducting satisfaction level of the users and it is the key purpose to the success of any library.

The academic library facilities and services assist the learners and the academicians in the educational process. The cognitive skills are developed by making the user's to use the library resources. The proper utilization of library resources can be optimally used only by attracting users to the library. This attraction is possible only by providing some good services. The library users satisfaction plays a vital role in the development and provisions of the library. The potential users feedback regarding the resources services and facilities should be considered for providing necessary resources and amenities in the library.
